CENTRAL TEXAS COLLEGE
GEOG 1303
WORLD REGIONAL GEOGRAPHY
Semester Hours Credit: 3

INSTRUCTOR: ________________________

I. INTRODUCTION

A. This course provides an introduction to the geographical and historical processes that have shaped different world regions as we know them today. For the world regions we discuss in class, we will examine political, economic, and cultural trajectories that uniquely impact people and their environment. Also emphasized throughout the course are several specific themes of interest for each region.

B. This course is occupationally related and it serves as preparation for careers in teaching, social sciences, government services, business, and perhaps other fields as well.

C. Through this course, students will prepare for contemporary challenges by developing and demonstrating critical thinking skills, communication skills, social responsibility, and empirical and quantitative skills.

• Critical thinking skills: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
• Communication skills: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
• Social responsibility: to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
• Empirical and quantitative skills: to include the manipulation and analysis of numerical data or observable facts resulting in informed conclusions.

D. Prerequisite: None

VII. NOTES AND ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE INSTRUCTOR

A. Course Withdrawal: It is the student's responsibility to officially withdraw from a class if circumstances prevent attendance. Any student who desires to, or must, officially withdraw from a course after the first scheduled class meeting must file a Central Texas College Application for Withdrawal or an Application for Refund. Please refer to the current CTC catalog for specific withdrawal requirements and processes.

B. Administrative Withdrawal: An administrative withdrawal may be initiated when the student fails to meet College participation requirements. The instructor will assign the appropriate grade on the Administrative Withdrawal Form for submission to the registrar.

C. Incomplete Grade: an “IP” grade may be assigned by an instructor if a student has made satisfactory progress in a course but encounters extenuating circumstances beyond his/her control. The instructor makes the final decision concerning the granting of the incomplete grade.

D. Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA): Disability Support Services provides services to students who have appropriate documentation of a disability. Students requiring accommodations for class are responsible for contacting the Office of Disability Support Services (DSS) located on the central campus. This service is available to all students, regardless of location. Explore the website at www.ctcd.edu/disability-support for further information. Reasonable accommodations will be given in accordance with the federal and state laws through the DSS office.

E. Instructor Discretion: The instructor reserves the right of final decision in course requirements.

F. Civility: Individuals are expected to be cognizant of what a constructive educational experience is and respectful of those participating in a learning environment. Failure to do so can result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion.
