The Student is expected to be on time to class, to have read the assigned materials, and be prepared to discuss the assignment in class. All persons must be present on exam day unless properly excused in advance. Students who are late for or absent from class have the absolute responsibility for obtaining the missed information. Students will be expected to take all scheduled examinations in the class period in which they are assigned. Students are expected to observe the Central Texas College policy for attendance as explained in the current catalog.

E. Each student is expected to act in a manner consistent with the College’s functions and goals as an institution of higher education. The Board of Trustees of Central Texas College states the following examples of misconduct constitute an interference with the lawful and orderly use of college premises, facilities, and activities for which students may be subject to disciplinary action. This is not an all-inclusive list of prohibited behavior.

a. Interference with teaching, research, administration or CTC’s other responsibilities through disorderly conduct or disruptive behavior. This includes the use of or ringing of cell phones in the classroom. The instructor has the right to ask the student to leave the classroom and if the incident is repeated, the instructor has the right to ask the student to leave the class.

b. Refusing to depart from any property or facility of the College upon direction by College officials.

For more information on Non-Academic Misconduct please see the Student Handbook.

F. Academic Dishonesty: The College and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against any student accused of any form of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on academic work, plagiarism and collusion.

a. Cheating on academic work includes:
   1. Copying another student’s test paper, research paper or term paper.
   2. Using materials during a test that are not authorized by the test administrator.
   3. Collaborating with another student during a test or in academic preparation without permission.
   4. Using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting the contents of an un-administered test.

b. Plagiarism is defined as presentation for credit as one’s own idea or product derived from an existing source.
c. Collusion is defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for credit. All questions of academic dishonesty are reviewed by the faculty member. If the student does not accept the decision of the faculty member, the student may appeal to the department chairperson. If the student disagrees with the decision of the department head, the student’s case will be referred to the Dean of the Central Campus. The student will be allowed to remain in class until the process is exhausted except when immediate suspension or expulsion is deemed necessary for the continuance of the educational mission or when the safety of persons or property is in jeopardy. (See Student Handbook for more details.)

G. Feedback is the return of data about the result of a process. Feedback will be provided via test scores, graded assignments, and/or instructor evaluation of the students’ progress. Each student is encouraged to take advantage of the many avenues for feedback available to them. For example, office hours are established primarily to provide students access to their instructors to discuss their academic performance, to answer their substantive questions, and in some cases, to give them other academic guidance. While adjunct faculties do not normally have office hours, they are generally available before or after class to meet with you. E-mail is another easily available medium to obtain feedback. Additional feedback may be provided at the discretion of the instructor or upon the request of the student.

V. EXAMINATIONS

A. There will be drafting assignments, emphasizing corporations, and unproctored quizzes and case analysis.

B. The student must be present for all examinations. Students who know in advance they will be absent from an examination due to valid reasons must arrange to take an early examination. Unexpected absences due to illness or extenuating circumstances will require the student to see the instructor about make-up exams.

C. Students without excused absences will be given a zero for the examination missed.

G. Nonattribution Policy: In order to facilitate the free flow of information, no statements of personal opinion concerning lawyers, judges, cases, or the legal system may be attributed to the speaker and is meant to be a confidential communication. This educational institution encourages complete freedom of expression in all academic endeavors. Comments made by instructors and students will not be attributed to them in any public forum or to any individual likely to transmit such statements to a public forum. However, participation in CTC academic events does not create a category of privileged communication. Our nonattribution policy protects all participants in our program -- staff, faculty, students, speakers, and other guests -- against having their remarks and opinions publicly quoted or otherwise attributed to them without their express consent; allows such statements to be discussed, away from CTC, provided care is taken to avoid publicly identifying the speaker; and encourages speakers to be responsible for the substantive content of their statements.
