I. INTRODUCTION
A. This course is designed to help learners build proficiency in Portuguese and appreciation for the Portuguese language. It will also help students to develop an understanding of lusophone cultures and their growing importance in the world, while providing contexts that reinforce the usefulness of the Portuguese language in today’s global economy, particularly in North and South America.

B. This course may be used to fulfill language requirements as outlined in your degree plan as well as satisfy one of the humanities requirements.

C. This course is occupationally related and serves as preparation for careers in: bilingual education and many occupations where there is a need because of the high numbers of Portuguese speakers that will be encountered, i.e. Social Work, Business, Hotel Motel Management, medicine and many other jobs dealing with the public.

D. Prerequisite(s): PORT 1411 with a course grade of “C” or higher or 2 years of Portuguese from an accredited high school.

II. Learning Outcomes
Upon successful completion of the courses, Beginning Portuguese I, the student will be able to:

A. Identify basic vocabulary in context orally and in written form. (C5, C6, C8, C15, C18, F1, F2, F3, F5, F6, F7, F10, F11, F12, F13, F14, F15, F16).

B. Create sentences and questions to describe and illicit information about people, places and ideas.(C5, C6, C15, C18, F1, F2, F3, F5, F6, F7, F10, F11, F12, F13, F14, F15, F16).

C. Explain various cultural practices throughout the Portuguese speaking world.(C8, C9, C14, F1, F2, F5, F6, F15).
III. INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS
The instructional materials identified for this course are viewable through www.ctcd.edu/books

IV. COURSE REQUIREMENTS:
A. To meet the attendance and laboratory requirements of no more than 6 total class absences in one semester. Early exits and late arrivals count toward absences. There are NO excused absences.

B. Complete all projects and activities: Listening activities in lab or in class will be conducted. Students are expected to attend and turn in their assignments on time.

C. Oral interviews or performances will occur throughout the semester. Students are expected to perform not only on a daily basis, but at prearranged times throughout the semester.

D. To participate in conversation and assigned exercises in class. Daily homework will be assigned from the text, workbook, handout, blackboard or Internet. If assignments are required to turn in, it is required to be prepared prior to the beginning of class and handed in at that time. Written assignments will vary in length from sentence level responses to short paragraphs.

E. To be present for all examinations and quizzes. Lesson Exams will be scheduled five to six days in advance. Quizzes may be announce or unannounced. There are NO make-up quizzes for unannounced or pop quizzes.

F. To complete all homework assignments, tests and oral exercises both in class and in lab which may be assigned

V. EXAMINATIONS
A. There will be a midterm and a final examination.

B. A student must be present for all examinations. No make-up examinations will be given. Students who know in advance they will be absent from an examination due to valid reasons, must arrange to take an early examination. Unexpected absences due to illness or extenuating circumstances will require the student to see the instructor about individual make-up work in lieu of the missed examination. One exam maximum per semester may be allowed to be made up due to valid reasons.

C. Students without excused absences will be given a zero for the examination missed.
VI. SEMESTER GRADE COMPUTATIONS
It is the student’s responsibility to complete the course requirements as defined within the syllabus. Each requirement should contain the methodology for evaluating and grading student accomplishment of the requirement. The final grade for the course should be a compilation of the grades from each of the major course requirements (for example: minimum of two exams to include the comprehensive final, quizzes, projects, laboratory assignments, class participation/attendance, etc.). The method used for determining the final grade should be shown in this section.

VII. NOTES AND ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS FROM COURSE INSTRUCTOR

A. Withdrawal from Course: It is the student’s responsibility to officially drop a class if circumstances prevent attendance. Any student who desires to, or must, officially withdraw from a course after the first scheduled class meeting must file an Application for Withdrawal or an Application for Refund. The withdrawal form must be signed by the student.

Application for Withdrawal will be accepted at any time prior to Friday of the 12th week of classes during the 16-week fall and spring semesters. The deadline for sessions of other lengths is as follows: 11-week session Friday of the 8th week 8-week session Friday of the 6th week 5½-week session Friday of the 4th week. The equivalent date (75% of the semester) will be used for sessions of other lengths. The specific last day to withdraw is published each semester in the Schedule Bulletin. Students who officially withdraw will be awarded the grade of "W", provided the student's attendance and academic performance are satisfactory at the time of official withdrawal. Students must file a withdrawal application with the college before they may be considered for withdrawal. A student may not withdraw from a class for which the instructor has previously issued the student a grade of "F" or "FN" for nonattendance.

B. An Administrative Withdrawal: An administrative withdrawal may be initiated when the student fails to meet College attendance requirements. The instructor will assign the appropriate grade on the Administrative Withdrawal Form for submission to the registrar.

C. An Incomplete Grade: The College catalog states, "An incomplete grade may be given in those cases where the student has completed the majority of the course work but, because of personal illness, death in the immediate family, or military orders, the student is unable to complete the requirements for a course..." Prior approval from the instructor is required before the grade of "I" is recorded. A student who merely fails to show for the final examination will receive a zero for the final and an "F" for the course.

D. Students who receive cellular calls and pages during class disrupt the normal classroom learning environment. To avoid this disruption, students must turn off all cellular phones, pagers, and beepers when entering the classroom.

E. Students are expected to initiate outside help if needed. It is the student’s responsibility to monitor feedback provided by the instructor. There are various possibilities for obtaining outside help. Always see your instructor first for guidance.

F. Disability Support Services provides services to students who have appropriate documentation of a disability. Students requiring accommodations for class are responsible for contacting the Office of Disability Support Services (DSS) located on the central campus. This service is available to all students, regardless of location. Review the website at www.cted.edu/disability-support for further information. Reasonable accommodations will be given in accordance with the federal and state laws through the DSS office.
